

Daniel Hansen

Address:

Department of Political Science
Michigan State University
South Kedzie Hall
368 Farm Lane, S226
East Lansing, MI 48823

Phone: 623-910-8287

E-mail: hanse115@msu.edu

Website: <http://www.danielshansen.com>

Education

Ph.D. Candidate, Political Science. Michigan State University. Expected completion March 2018.

Major field: International Relations (International Political Economy emphasis)

Minor field: Comparative Politics

Dissertation: "Constraints on Economic Policymaking in the World: Rules, Transparency and International Oversight"

Committee: Cristina Bodea (chair), Michael Colaresi, Eric Chang, & Benjamin Appel

B.S. Political Science. Arizona State University. 2010.

Certificates of: International Studies, Islamic Studies, & Arabic Studies.

Specialization and Research Interests

International and comparative political economy. Financial Transparency and international financial vulnerability. Fiscal policy and fiscal institutions. Economic development.

Economic sanctions.

Democratization.

Econometrics.

Under review

"The Democratic (Dis)advantage: How Financial Vulnerability Conditions the Effect of Democracy on Sovereign Credit Ratings in Developing Countries"

"The Effectiveness of Fiscal Institutions: International Financial Flogging or Domestic Constraint?"

Working papers

“Eliminating Political Budget Cycles: The Role of Fiscal Rules and Fiscal Transparency in a Global Context”

“Does Central Bank Independence Promote Regime Consolidation in Poor Democracies?” with Tolgahan Dilgin

“Dollars and Debt: How Financial Vulnerability Improves the Effectiveness of Economic Sanctions”

“The Spatial Effect of Economic Sanctions on Human Rights Practices” with Tara Iseneker

“To Pause or Repress: How Economic Sanctions Spatially Mitigate the Link Between Protests and Government Repression”

“Choosing Constraints: Why Governments Adopt Constraining Fiscal Institutions”

“Electoral Illusions: The Inflation of Growth Statistics and the Role of International Scrutiny”

Conference participation

International Studies Association, 2016. “Eliminating Political Budget Cycles: The Role of Fiscal Rules and Fiscal Transparency in a Global Context”

Virtual International Political Economy Society (IPES), Fall 2017. “The Effectiveness of Fiscal Institutions: International Financial Flogging or Domestic Constraint?”

Professional Experience

Lead Editorial Assistant, International Interactions. 2015 to 2017.

Managed workflow, aided with reviewer selection, conducted replication analyses, produced annual reports for Editorial Board meetings.

Additional Training

Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) Summer Program, University of Michigan

2013:

- (1) Regression Analysis III: Advanced Methods
- (2) Maximum Likelihood Estimation

2016:

- (3) Empirical Modeling of Social Science Theory
(Endogeneity Modeling, Spatial Econometrics, Time Series & Panel Analysis)

Additional Training (continued)

ICPSR (continued)

2016:

(4) Causal Inference for Social Sciences

2017:

(5) Bayesian Modeling for Social Sciences

“ESTIMATE” 2015. Early Summer Tutorial in Modern Applied Tools of Econometrics, from Jeffrey Wooldridge & Timothy Vogelsang

Mainly on Panel Data and Time-Series Econometrics

Awards, Fellowships and Other Experience

Merit Fellowship, MSU Department of Political Science, 2015.

Research Assistant, MSU Spring 2013 & Summer 2014.

Teaching Assistant, MSU Fall 2012, Fall 2013- 2015.

Discussion sections for Introduction to Comparative Politics and Introduction to Political Science

Memberships

International Studies Association

American Political Science Association